All about the lesson

Text : Luke 22 and Matthew 14

- Peter is known as one of the disciples who was closest to Jesus.
- Besides his weaknesses, being close to Jesus was always in Peter's heart.
- Peter became a great hero because he was always close to Jesus.

Declaration:

I walk close to Jesus every day.

Memorize: Matthew 14:29

So Peter went over the side of the boat and walked on the water toward Jesus.

Our lesson points:

- We should always be with Him despite our fears: Peter All the disciples were afraid when they saw Jesus walking on water. Nevertheless Peter wanted to be close to Jesus and dared to get out of the boat.

A hero does not allow their fears to separate them from Jesus.

- We should always be with Jesus even if it is hard: When Jesus was arrested, all the disciples were frightened and ran away. Peter tried to be close to Jesus, even though it seemed dangerous.

A hero is always with Jesus even during the hardest times.

- This is the main character of a hero: Peter had to go through many trials, but the desire to be with Jesus was always in his heart.

A hero's desire is always to be close to Jesus.
