All about the lesson

Read Esther 9

- The festival of Purim is celebrated to commemorate the victory of all the Jewish people in the time of Esther and Mordecai.
- The Festival of Purim is celebrated on the 14th of the month of Adar (February/March).

Declaration:

The redemption Jesus won for us is the greatest reason to celebrate.

Psalm 145:7

"Everyone will share the story of your wonderful goodness; they will sing with joy about your righteousness"

These passages show us how important the actions of a hero are:

- They change history! (Esther 9:22b): Mordecai and Esther's actions permanently changed the history of the Jews. Their decisions brought salvation to an entire people group:
- They are remembered and become an example for the future! (Esther 9:28b): Although Mordecai and Esther lived many years ago, the Jewish people still remember their great deeds today. Their actions give testimony to the power of God and teach people to be brave.
- They bring joy and celebration! (Esther 9:21): The Jewish people had a huge party to celebrate their incredible victory. What happened caused so much joy that they decided to celebrate every year.

Instruction: Lead the children in applying the blood of Jesus.

- By the blood of Jesus, I have been redeemed from the power of the enemy. The devil has no power over me. I dwell in the house of the Lord.
- By the blood of Jesus, all my sins have been forgiven.
- By the blood of Jesus, I have been justified. God sees me as if I had never sinned.
- By the blood of Jesus, I have been sanctified and set apart for God. I am going to do great things for God on this earth.

Prayer of salvation:

Father, thank You for sending us Your beloved Son Jesus. I know that He died on the cross for my sins and He was raised to life to give me eternal life.

Today, we remember and celebrate the victory of Jesus. He is the reason for my joy In the name of Jesus. Amen.
