

VJ DEVOTION: 27 SEPTEMBER - 03 OCTOBER

Hey there Friend,

We are so excited to do devotion with you this week. Prepare a cool place and settle a time where you can talk to God and go through His word everyday. Fill in the missing words in the scriptures using the New Living Translation Bible. Write down your own declaration for the day in your notebook and speak it out loud. We believe in you and we know you are going to change the world!

Love, 3CK Team

M

Monday

Read: 2 Corinthians 5:17 NLT

This means that _____ who _____ to _____ has become a _____ person. The old life is _____; a new life has _____!

T

Tuesday

Read: Hebrews 12:2 NLT

We do this by keeping our eyes on _____, the _____ who initiates and _____ our _____. Because of the joy awaiting him, he endured the _____, disregarding its shame. Now he is seated in the place of _____ beside God's _____.

W

Wednesday

Read: John 3:16 NLT

For this is how God _____ the world: He _____ his one and only _____, so that everyone who _____ in him will not perish but have _____ life.

T

Thursday

Read: Galatians 2:20 NLT

My old self has been _____ with Christ. It is no _____ I who live, but Christ lives in me. So I live in this earthly body by _____ in the Son of God, who loved me and _____ himself for _____.

F

Friday

Read: Galatians 3:13 NLT

But _____ has _____ us from the _____ pronounced by the law. When he was hung on the _____, he took upon himself the _____ for our _____. For it is written in the Scriptures, "_____ is everyone who is hung on a _____."

S

Saturday

Read: Colossians 2:15 NLT

In this way, he _____ the spiritual _____ and _____. He shamed them publicly by his victory over them on the _____.

S

Sunday

Read: 1 John 2:2 NLT

He himself is the _____ that _____ for our sins—and not only our sins but the sins of all the _____.